Press Release: August 13, 2008

BACK TO SCHOOL: THE WOMEN'S BUSINESS CENTER AT COMMUNITY FIRST FUND'S SUMMER/FALL TRAINING SCHEDULE IS NOW AVAILABLE

Lancaster, PA... School starts early at Community First Fund. The Women's Business Center at Community First Fund which provides a variety of training classes and seminars for future and current entrepreneurs has recently posted its summer/fall training schedule on its Web site. The first training of the summer, Core Four®, began on Monday August 11th. Three more of these six-week seminars will be offered throughout the summer and fall. You can view the training schedule and class descriptions from several locations on the Web site, including on the home page, the training page, and via this link.

Community First Fund is a non-profit loan fund that provides business capital, business training, and one-on-one counseling to entrepreneurs of all sizes, affordable housing and commercial real estate developers, and community groups in under-served communities. Community First Fund's impact is felt throughout the 13 counties in central Pennsylvania that it serves as evidenced by the more than 650 loans that the organization has disbursed since inception, totaling nearly $20 million.

The Women's Business Center at Community First Fund has a Women's Business Loan Fund providing loan capital to start-up and existing women-owned businesses. Funding and technical assistance support for the Women's Business Center is partially provided by the U.S. Small Business Administration.

To register for any of the classes offered by Community First Fund, please contact Jamie Frey at 717-393-2351 or via email at jfrey@commfirstfund.org.
